IDS VACANCIES

Human Development Information Officer (Ref: 477)

Full-time, fixed term until 31 October

The Human Development Resource Centre (HDRC) is a service responding to the information and technical assistance needs of DFID's Human Development (Health and Education) advisers. The HDRC Information Officer is responsible for coordinating the HDRC Helpdesk as well as developing and maintaining other HDRC's information services. They work closely with the HDRC Information Team in responding to queries with research syntheses.

The successful candidate will manage specialist input to queries as required, in liaison with IDS staff and team members. The Information Officer will keep record of all interactions and post all enquiries onto the HDRC/DFID website. They will be responsible for editorial coordination and ensuring consistent quality across information outputs.

The post requires strong coordination, prioritisation, technical project management, research and communication skills. It also involves liaison with DFID advisers and other senior staff so an assertive and diplomatic approach to relationship management is required. Enthusiasm about the role of knowledge services in the development context is essential with some specialist knowledge in health and education.

If you are a non-EU National then please refer to the UK Border Agency website, www.ukba.homeoffice.gov.uk for information regarding your eligibility to work in the UK.

Salary range: Grade 6 (£23,587 to £35,231) per annum pro rata
Closing date: Monday 20 February at 12 midday UK time
Interview date: Thursday 1 or Friday 2 March.

Senior Nutrition Convenor (Ref: 479)

Full-time, 35 hours per week

Fixed-term for one year initially subject to funding

IDS Knowledge Services is responsible for developing and delivering evidence based knowledge products and mobilisation strategies aimed at reducing poverty in the global South.

We require an experienced and highly motivated Senior Nutrition Convenor to manage co-production partnerships with organisations in the global south as part of a dynamic range of programme initiatives. The successful candidate will have specialist knowledge of health and/or education issues in development, likely to have been gained over two or more years.

The role will involve working with partners to mobilise knowledge on Nutrition to an international audience of policy makers and development professionals; developing partnerships and networks aimed at strengthening the global network of knowledge intermediaries in order to increase the sharing and effective use of research knowledge and working with local partners to write and edit a range of outputs and promoting innovative work with Southern partners.

You will need excellent written and verbal communication skills, project management experience, and experience of managing relationships with international partners. Line management experience and a masters degree or equivalent relevant qualification or equivalent experience in international development is essential.

If you are a non-EU National then please refer to the UK Border Agency website for information regarding your eligibility to work in the UK. Our vision is a world in which poverty does not exist, social justice prevails and economic growth is focused on improving human wellbeing.

Salary: Initial appointment will be between £32,808 and £43,364 per annum, in the IDS Grade 7 range.
Closing date: Wednesday 29 February at 12 midday UK time
Interviews: Thursday 8 March.
