Research project for Masters dissertation with East Sussex Credit Union Are you interested in looking at financial exclusion and well-being in the UK? The East Sussex Credit Union provides financial services to members in Brighton & Hove and beyond. As part of a new strategy to grow the business and improve services, taking advantage of a new digital platform, the Credit Union seeks to better understand the opportunities for its services to help the people it works with manage the financial 'crunch points' in their lives. We are looking for a Masters student who will undertake independent research as part of their Thesis. As well as forming the basis for your dissertation you will deliver a set of recommendations to the Credit Union about opportunities for product and service changes. The project will be supported by Anton Simanowitz, a Director of the Credit Union, former IDS research manager, experienced in financial inclusion. Please email antons@socialperformance.net for more details and to express your interest.

The United Nations Trust Fund in Support of Actions to Eliminate Violence against Women is accepting applications for its 20th grant cycle (2016) from civil society organizations and government authorities. Special attention will be paid to applications from women's rights, women-led, and small organizations (including youth organizations) in recognition of the contribution these make to reaching women and girls at the grassroots level. This year, the UN Trust Fund is looking to support organizations that qualify for funding under: (a) the three programmatic areas of the UN Trust Fund's 2015–2020 Strategy; (b) a "special window" addressing violence against women and girls in the context of the current refugee crisis; and (c) those specifically invited to submit proposals. The complete Call for Proposals detailing criteria, eligibility requirements and application guidelines is available at: <http://grants.unwomen.org/>
