Research Assistant – Action for Empowerment & Accountability (Ref: 1134)

Hours per week: 17.5 (0.5 FTE)
Contract type: Fixed-term for 1 year

We require an enthusiastic and motivated Research Assistant to join the Action for Empowerment and Accountability Research Programme at IDS. The Research Assistant will work on research projects across the programme to carry out literature reviews, undertake data analysis and provide other research support services as required.

The successful candidate will have outstanding writing skills, and experience of undertaking academic research, using qualitative software and databases. The role will require working across a number of projects and with a number of different research leads so applicants must be able to work independently, be well organized and systematic, with attention to detail, but also able to take a flexible approach to managing their workload. The successful candidate will have an interest and some experience in working on the issue of the role of social and political action in empowerment and accountability; knowledge of contexts of fragility and conflict, especially in the developing world is also essential.

Salary: £25,486 to £30,929 per annum, notional, pro rata (depending on experience) in the IDS grade 5 range

Closing date: Tuesday, 29 August, 10am

Interview date: Week commencing 11 September.

IDS VACANCIES (CONT.)

Research Assistant – Business, Markets & the State (Ref: 1135)

Hours per week: 17.5 (0.5 FTE)

Contract type: Fixed-term for 1 year

We are seeking to recruit a highly-motivated Research Assistant to join two project teams working within the Business, Markets and the State Cluster. The Research Assistant will report to the Research Fellows acting as Project Leads, and will work closely with research teams across two projects 'Linking Participation and Economic Advancement' and 'Policy Approaches to Business Investment in Agricultural Commercialisation'. The project teams require a researcher with a good general background in economic development. Knowledge of either participation and participatory approaches or the agriculture sector, particularly commercialisation of smallholder farming, is desirable. The successful applicant will need to be able to respond flexibly but rigorously across these subject areas, reviewing data and assessing the strength of evidence, mapping and analysing case examples, and presenting the findings in a structured way with good attention to detail. Applicants will have or be near to completing a master's degree in related subject, preferably development economics, business studies or business in development. Please note this role is pending confirmation of funding.

Salary: £25,486 to £30,929 pa in the IDS Grade 5, subject to experience and pro rata for part time hours

Closing date: 07 September, 10am

Interview date: 15 September.

Project Administrators (Ref: 1132)

Hours per week: 35 (1.0FTE)

Contract type: Permanent

The Project and Engagement Hubs at IDS are teams of professionals providing our Research Clusters & Knowledge Units with Project Management, Communications, Finance and Administration support. We are currently seeking to recruit Project Administrators. The role of the Project Administrator is to provide administration support directly to our research clusters and work with project and engagement hub colleagues who are leading and supporting elements of research projects so administrative experience within a professional, service driven environment, is essential. The post holder will ensure effective co-ordination of administration and communication at the cluster level in support of the Cluster Leader and act as a central point of information for the cluster on administrative matters. This role therefore requires excellent communication, time management, a positive and pragmatic outlook and the ability to work autonomously and as part of a team.

Salary: £21,102 to £24,286 per annum, (depending on experience), in the IDS scale 4 range.

Closing date: 29 August at 10am

Interview date: 06 September.
