Wednesday 24 May

Using Knowledge for Organisational Learning and Development: the new K4D programme. Knowledge for Development (K4D) is a new programme led by IDS, supporting DFID through learning and the use of evidence for improved development policy and programmes. The programme aims to encourage cross-thematic working of the approx. 800 professional advisers, across all 13 advisory disciplines, based in the UK and overseas. The aim is to strengthen DFID's organisational learning and evidence use, as well as facilitate dialogue with other development donors and stakeholders. This seminar will:

- Introduce the K4D programme
- Describe the main Helpdesk and Learning Journey functions
- Discuss how IDS colleagues can get involved
- Discuss strategic opportunities for IDS.

13:00 to 14:30 in Room 221. IDS members only.

Deepta Chopra will be in Bangkok, from 24 to 26 May for the SEEP learning forum on Women's Economic Empowerment. She is then travelling to Delhi and Kathmandu for national and district uptake events in both places on the GrOW (Growth of economic opportunities for women) project.

Malcolm Segall has recently donated important documents on health systems and policy in sub-Saharan Africa and southeast Asia to BLDS, the IDS library. IDS would like to thank Malcolm for this rich and, in many instances, unique addition to historical and government policy materials. Eminent development scholar and ex-IDS Fellow Emanuel de Kadt also visited IDS on the same day to see Malcolm and Richard Jolly.
