

IDS MEMBERS

Jon Gregson is attending planning meetings with Knowledge Services partners, in East Africa, Malawi and South Africa from 29 July to 6 August.

Katie Harris will be in the Philippines, from 1 to 11 August, to undertake research with Plan International as part of the Strengthening Climate Resilience programme. Through workshops with children they hope to adapt the Climate Smart Disaster Risk Management (CSDRM) approach to create a child-centred contextualised version. Findings will be shared on the website www.csdrm.org

Rosie McGee will be in Tanzania from 8 to 14 August to work with the International Budget Partnership on capturing the impact of Haki Elimu's advocacy and campaigning work.

Fran Seballos will be in Phnom Penh, Cambodia, from 6 to 13 August, to facilitate a capacity building workshop with government and NGO partners to support the uptake of the Climate Smart Disaster Risk Management approach.

EXTERNAL MEETINGS

DSA/EADI Joint Conference 2011 'Rethinking Development in an Age of Scarcity and Uncertainty: New Values, Voices and Alliances for increased Resilience' University of York, from 19 to 22 September.

Registration is still open for what is shaping up to be the largest development studies conference in Europe since both Associations were established in the 1970s. The Early Bird rate has been extended to 5 August (for whole event tickets only) and represents great value for a four day event with three nights' accommodation. Individual day tickets are not part of the Early Bird scheme.

There are over 70 panels with a wide range of themes already in place which will give potential participants a good idea as to the content of the event. Professor Edgar Morin, the French philosopher, will be presenting the Dudley Seers Lecture on Monday 19 September, introduced and chaired by Sir Richard Jolly, and we have among our plenary speakers confirmed, Luisa Diogo, Government of Mozambique; Noeleen Heyzer, ESCAP; Ravi Kanbur, Cornell University and Nisha Agrawal, Oxfam India. More information can be found on registration, the panel themes and programme by following the links from www.devstud.org.uk/events/conference/.

Any queries can be addressed to: conference@devstud.org.uk

EXTERNAL VACANCIES

Practical Action is seeking a Deputy Country Director, Sudan. This exciting opportunity is open to candidates with significant experience in development. The successful applicant will have extensive experience of management as well as project formulation, design, implementation, monitoring and evaluation, and will be fluent in written and spoken English and Arabic. They will also have knowledge of Sudan.

Tasks will include assisting in strategic planning, fundraising, project implementation and contract management, financial resource management, human resource management, reporting and knowledge management.
