

Creating safe and inclusive cities that leave no one behind

Side event at Habitat III, The United Nations Conference on Housing and Sustainable Urban Development

19 October 2016, 8:00 to 9:00am, Room R14, Casa de la Cultura Ecuatoriana 'Benjamín Carrión', Quito, Ecuador

AGENDA

Welcome remarks Jaideep Gupte, Institute of Development Studies	2 minutes
Reflections on Key Messages Ricardo Gutiérrez, City Manager, Guadalajara, Mexico	5 minutes
Slum Dwellers International Sekai Chiremba (Community Leader, Harare)	5 minutes
 No one left behind: safety and inclusion in the city Slum Dwellers International and Institute of Development Studies	3 minutes
Practitioner perspectives on best practices and innovations
UN-Habitat Juma Assiago, Global Coordinator, Safer Cities Programme	5 minutes
UNHCR Steven Corliss, Director, UN-DPSM / Gaëla Roudy Fraser, Senior Policy Officer	5 minutes
Belfast City Council Phil Williams, Director of Planning and Place, Belfast City Council and President, Royal Town Planning Institute	5 minutes
WIEGO Sally Roever, Director, Urban Policies Programme	5 minutes
Map My Community App (Delhi) Sophie Hadfield-Hill, University of Birmingham	5 minutes
International Committee of the Red Cross Hugo Slim, Head of Policy	5 minutes
Botswana Association of Local Authorities (BALA) Rev. Moruakgomo, President, BALA and Commonwealth Local Government Forum (CLGF)	5 minutes
Discussants
Bringing Best Practice and Research Together Caroline Moser (University of Manchester)	5 minutes
Supporting Co-production Lucy Earle (Department for International Development)	5 minutes
Final session
Wrap up and next steps Institute of Development Studies	5 minutes